Fujirebio Diagnostics Named One of Best Places to Work in PA

Company Recognized for Outstanding Work Environment

MALVERN, Pa. – Dec. 19, 2005 – Fujirebio Diagnostics, Inc. (FDI), a world-leader in in-vitro diagnostics, was named one of the Best Places to Work in PA by a public/private partnership comprised of the Pennsylvania Department of Community and Economic Development, Team Pennsylvania Foundation, Central Penn Business Journal, Best Companies Group, and the Pennsylvania Chamber of Business and Industry. The awards program, one of the first of its kind on the state level, identifies and honors Pennsylvania places of employment that best serve Pennsylvania's workforce and economy.

“It’s extremely rewarding to be recognized as a company that provides an outstanding work environment for its employees,” said Paul Touhey, President and COO for FDI. “Fujirebio Diagnostics is experiencing significant growth as we launch new biomarkers with the potential to detect and monitor specific cancers in their early stages. Our team members are the reason for our success. Working together, Fujirebio Diagnostics will deliver novel, innovative and noninvasive technologies that improve care for cancer patients.”

The Best Places to Work in PA program names a total of 100 companies in two groups: 50 medium-size companies of 25 to 250 employees, and 50 large-size companies of more than 250 employees. FDI has been named to the medium group and was recognized at the Best Places to Work in PA awards ceremony in Hershey, PA on Nov. 29.
